

Little's Class Summary--September 9, 2012

Our first week back at the JCS was very fun and educational! We welcomed back some returning friends, and met some new ones. We drew pictures about ourselves and our families to learn more about one another, sang songs about Yom Kippur, ate apples and honey, and read a story. The kids did a wonderful job of contributing their stories, creativity, and focused energy.